This risk is not real. Launching off Play is not a big risk.

 Marc Theermann
If this is not the major risk with the Tencent portfolio companies. Then we should outline what the major risks are - if any (perhaps a slow drain via gift card etc).
 Purnima Kochikar
Apologies. That was not a productive comment.

We should keep what Activision has told us they would do. And add... Tencent portfolio exploring other business models to take revenues off Play.
